7TH ANNUAL GALA DINNER & SHOWCASE — MAY 27, 2010 The Westin Bayshore, Vancouver

This is your opportunity to express how you feel you would benefit as a student participating in the Comedy Courage comedic training course and performing at a Gala Dinner & Showcase and before live audience(s) expressing your experiences about living life with a mental illness through the truth of comedy. Please Print

Dear 2010 Comedy Courage applicant:

Thank you for applying to Comedy Courage. We are able to accept 10-15 applicants for our 2010 program. Should your application not be accepted for the 2010 program, we will keep it on file and encourage you to re-apply. The 2010 class are 1-3pm, Wednesday, February 17, 2010 at Lafflines Comedy Club 4th at Columbia Street New Westminster (next to Columbia SkyTrain Station)

We hope all students of the Comedy Courage program find the experience enlightening, educational and entertaining. We encourage students to support our mission of helping those dealing with mental health diagnoses, while increasing public awareness.

- If accepted as a student in the Comedy Courage program I understand and/or agree to the following: Comedy Courage can produce some amazing break through's for participants. However, by its very nature can be very personal.
- I will be receiving free training in stand up comedy, in order to perform for the benefit of the mental health community.
- I agree to allow pictures, video, media coverage quotes taken of me (including but not limited to the Gala Performance on May 27, 2010, printed material, internet, TV, radio, and or a documentary/screenplay) to be used by Comedy Courage to promote the program and help dispel the myth behind mental illness without royalties or compensation to me.
- I agree to perform at the Westin Bayshore, Vancouver on May 27, 2010, plus any additions shows through the 2010 season without royalties or compensation to me.
- I agree to supply data that will help Comedy Courage evaluate the program.
- I agree to regular attendance at training sessions, completion of homework assignments, attendance at rehearsals, performances and I understand failure to do so may result in termination from the program.
- I agree that I have applied for Comedy Courage for my own benefit, and will not hold Comedy Courage or any of its directors/representatives/sponsors liable for any wrongs or perceived wrongs that may occur while I am a student or performer for Comedy Courage.
